Sue's Afternoon Tea

Thank you, Sue, helpers Sue A and Margaret A, for a great Afternoon Treat. A fantastic £180 was raised for Boston Womens Refuge. Sue has been on a shopping spree and purchased pillows, pillow protectors, single fitted sheets and towels of various sizes – all colour co-ordinated. They will be delivered to the Boston collection point 13 August.

Last year Boston's 2 safe houses supported 47 women (teenage to senior) and 57 children (baby to age 18)

I won the flower competition at the July meeting. Many ladies thought it was a Clematis and were surprised when I told them it was from my YUCCA. It is my first Yucca and adorns my back garden

Lin writes: I had a fun-filled weekend with 500plus lovely, friendly ladies at the Tea and Tents weekend in Walesby Forest. So many activities to do (or not), a variety of wool crafts, axe throwing, rifle shooting, making fabulous flower garlands but the most memorable part was making so many new friends and enjoying their company. The Yarn Bomb was brilliant. It will travel to Cambridge in September, Durham in October and then will be included in the National Archives and, possibly a UK Tour!! Oh & lots of cake!!

2 beautiful craft items have been selected by members but we still need a volunteer for the flower arrangement:

height 18ins x width 12 ins

We always have lovely arrangements on the President's Table. Please volunteer otherwise it will have to be me with flowers in a jam jar!
